

Diana combined her passion for cooking with our family's ongoing commitment to Jewish Family Services by preparing hot kosher meals. There are people in need in our community that continue to perform the mitzvah of keeping kosher. Now they can get a hot meat meal from the pantry to enjoy and nourish their body and soul.