

This is my second season of helping be a buddy for a special needs baseball program. It is called Challenger Baseball. We get together every Sunday for a game. I help my buddy hit, run, field and get more familiar with baseball. I enjoy helping a person who has a disability have fun playing baseball.